Re: United States v. Tyrell Lockhart
Docket # 22 CR 179 (CS)

Dear Judge Seibel;

This matter is scheduled for a status conference on June 29, 2022. I have conferred with AUSA Stephanie Simon, and we are in agreement that an adjournment of about 60 days would permit us to continue discovery review and plea negotiations. Mr. Lockhart is not in custody.

I have discussed this with my client, and we agree to exclude the time between June 16 and the next date from the operation of the Speedy Trial Act.

Mr. Clark has provided alternate dates for the adjournment, subject to the Court's September trial calendar, and Ms. Simon and I agree that we are both available on September 28. We therefore request that date.

Thank you for your courtesy and consideration.

Respectfully yours,

John S. Wallenstein

Sixty days is late August, not late September, so the status conference is adjourned to 8/23/22 at 11 am. The time between now and then is excluded under the Speedy Trial Act in the interests of justice. I find the ends of justice served by the exclusion outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial because it will the defendant to continue his review of the discovery and enable the parties to continue d iscussions regarding a possible disposition without trial.

SO ORDERED.
